SUSKEN ROSENTHAL

5760 MINUTEN

Aufzeichnung sämtlicher Spiele der Fußball WM 2006 in Deutschland
70 Zeichnungen je 50 cm x 65 cm

Susken Rosenthals Projekt „5760 MINUTEN“ dokumentiert den Spielverlauf der gesamten WM 2006. In 70 Simultanzeichnungen hat sie alle Ballbewegungen aus der Vogelperspektive zeichnerisch nachvollzogen.

Auf jedem Blatt sind die beiden Spielhälften eines der 64 Spiele zu sehen. Spielverlängerungen und Elfmeterschießen sind auf 6 zusätzlichen Blättern dargestellt. Die Zeichnungen sind nach Nummern und nach Gruppen bezeichnet.

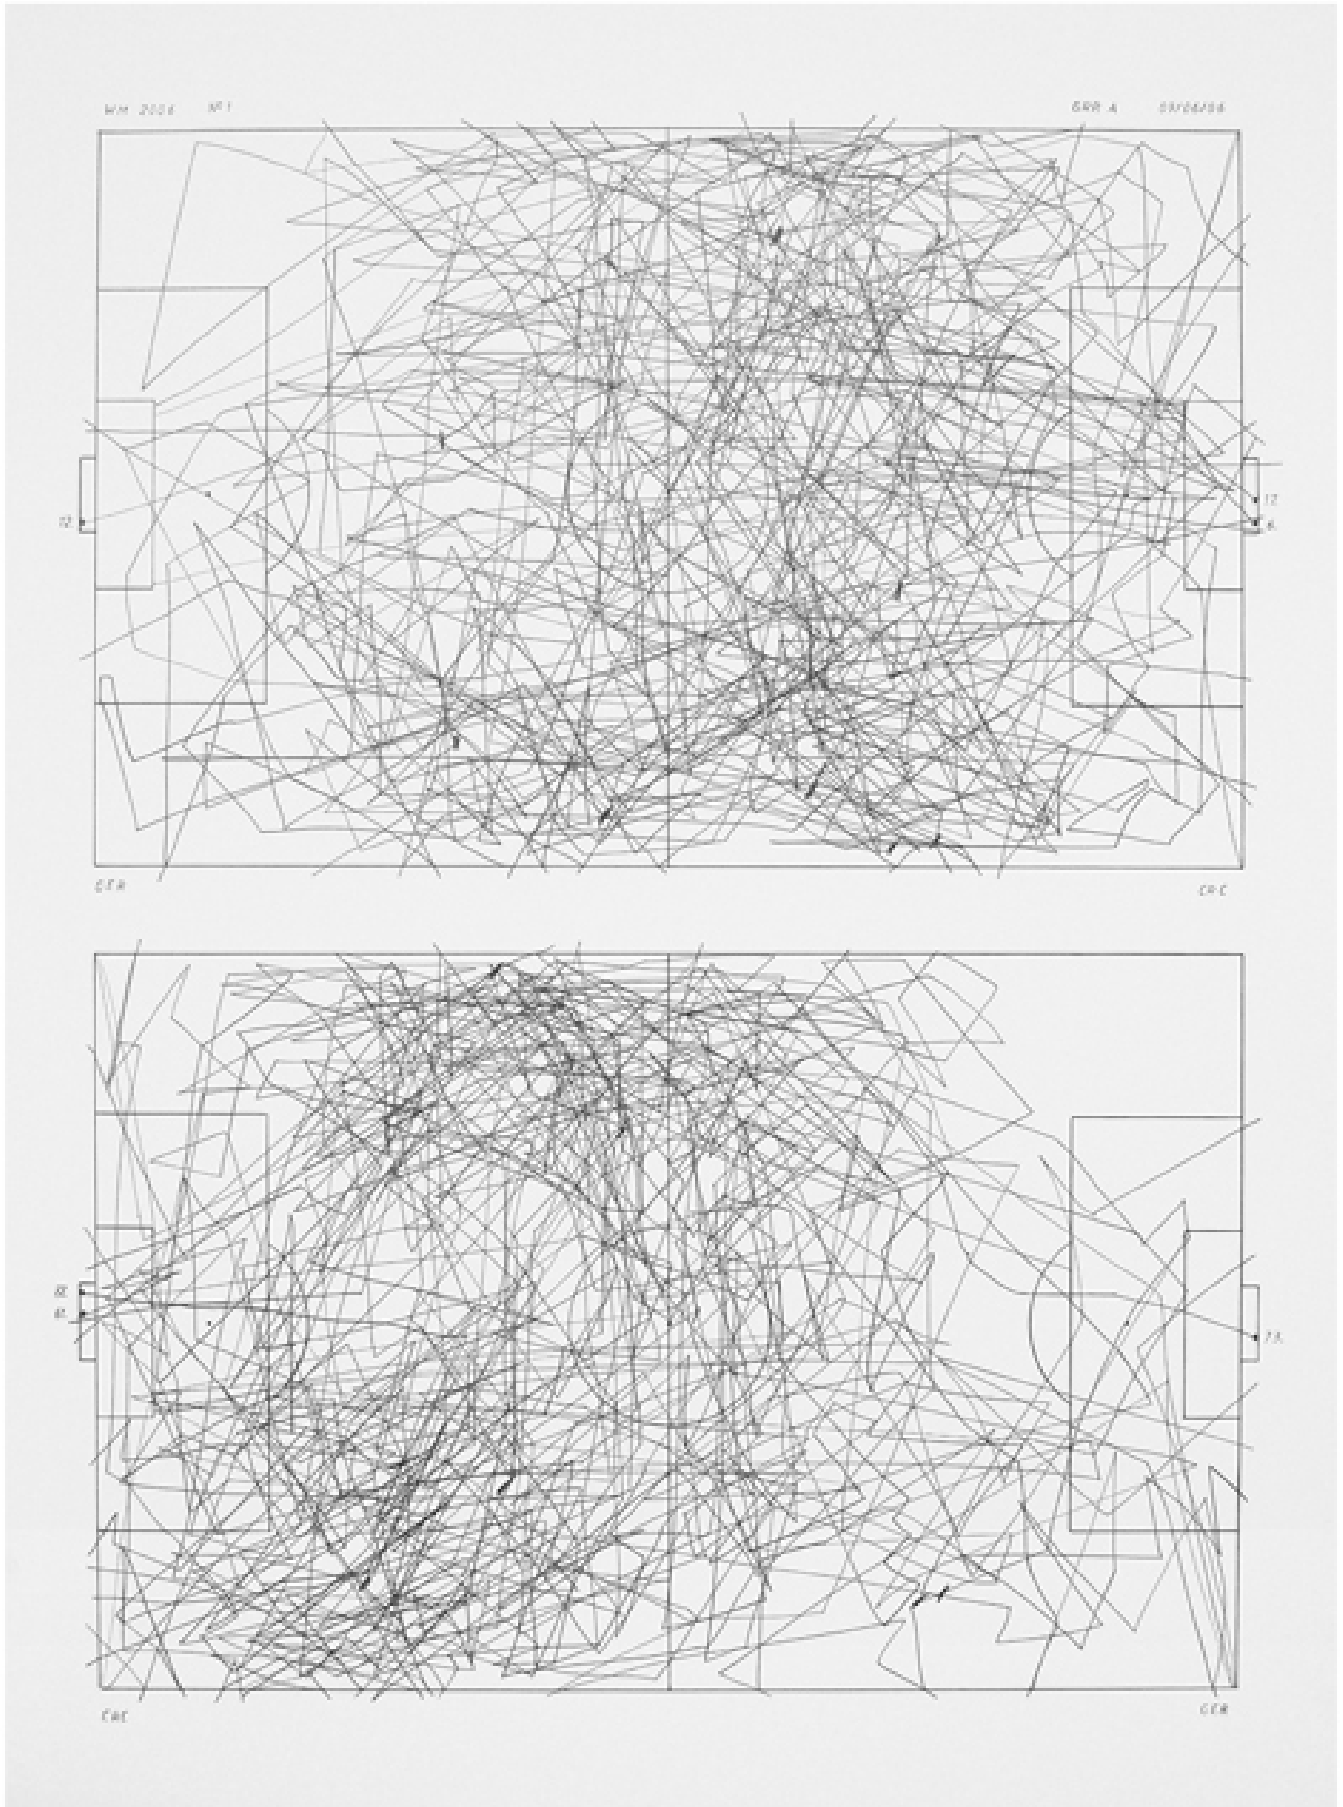

Wie mit einem seismografischen Gerät wurden die Ballbewegungen mit dem Bleistift in Echtzeit parallel zum Spielverlauf vor dem TV-Monitor live oder anhand von Videoaufzeichnungen direkt mitgezeichnet. Jede Zeichnung visualisiert somit das authentische Energieprofil eines konkreten Spiels. Einzelne Spielzüge, Strategie und Kräfteverhältnisse der Mannschaften, auch Eckstöße, Fowls und Tore mit Minutenangabe sind ablesbar, aber nicht individuell zuzuordnen.

Trotz dieses Realitätsanspruchs bleiben die Zeichnungen abstrakt, allgemein und künstlerisch autark. Insbesondere wenn man die vielen Liniennetze gleicher Ausdehnung als Serie betrachtet, nimmt man die minimalen, aber charakteristischen Verdichtungen an Stellen vermehrter Bewegungsenergie als ästhetisches Ereignis wahr, die dem strengen Konzept von Zeit (90 Minuten) und Form (Spielfeld) unterworfen sind.

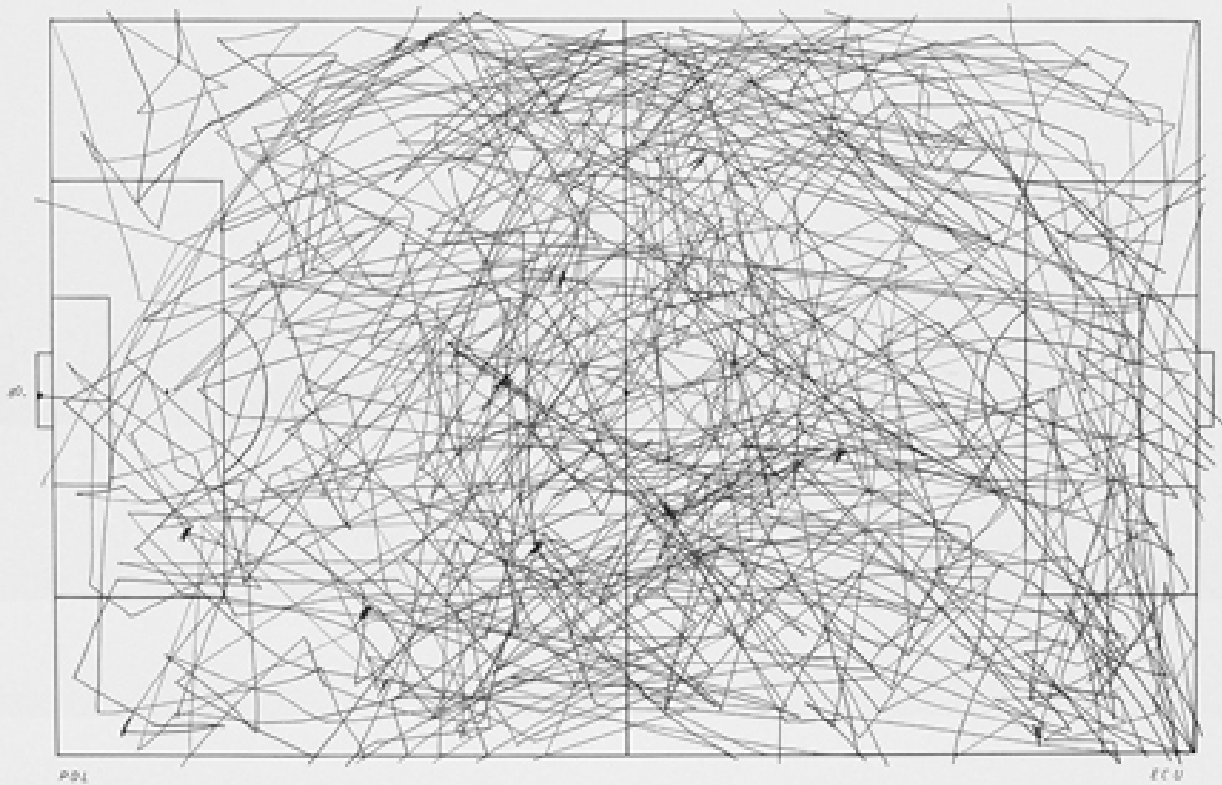

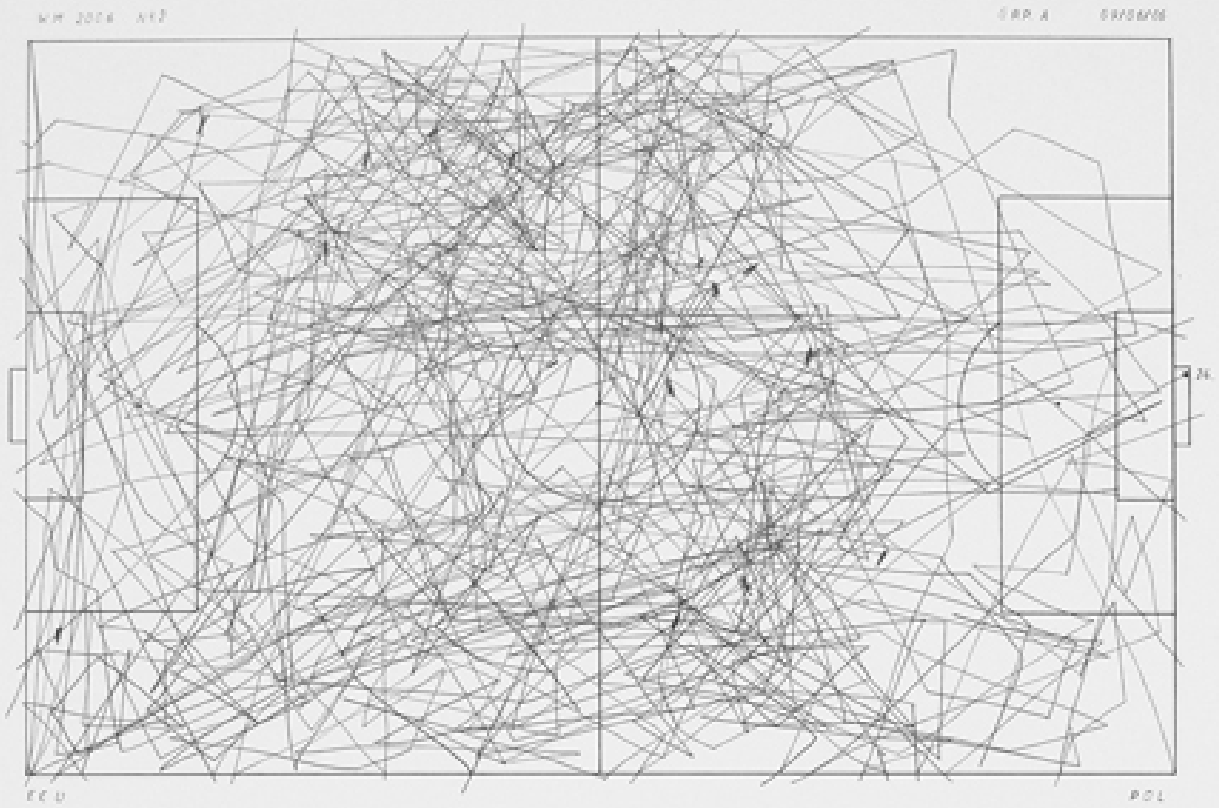

Die seit 1982 entstandenen Fußballzeichnungen von Susken Rosenthal sind im Kontext von Kunst und Fussball mehrfach international ausgestellt worden.
